Faculty Fellows Announced by College of Business

Champaign, Ill. — Seven faculty in the College of Business were named recipients of faculty fellowships in recognition of their research and professional accomplishments and their contributions to teaching curriculum development and pedagogical innovations, according to an announcement made by Dean Avijit Ghosh on December 17. The holders of the three-year Faculty Fellowships are:

Bryan Cloyd, Department of Accountancy, Arthur Andersen Fellowship in Accountancy

Kathryn Kadous, Department of Accountancy, Caterpillar Fellowship

Steven Michael, Department of Business Administration, Schoen Fellowship in Entrepreneurship

Neil Pearson, Department of Finance, Investors in Business Education (IBE) Fellowship

Marjorie Shelley, Department of Accountancy, Deloitte & Touche Teaching Fellowship in Accountancy

Brian Wansink, Department of Business Administration, Julian Simon Memorial Faculty Fellowship

Zhijie Xiao, Department of Economics, IBE Fellowship

Said Ghosh “These individuals have made outstanding contributions to the College and to the profession. I am gratified that we are recognizing these contributions through our new Faculty Fellowship program.” He noted that the program was established in November 2002 to complement the College’s endowed chairs and professorships.

Nationally recognized as one of the leading business schools, the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign College of Business has outstanding programs in accounting, business, economics, and finance. The college enrolls approximately 3,300 undergraduates, 900 MBA and master’s students, and 165 doctoral candidates.
