

This special FYI edition of the Undergraduate Business Newsletter serves as a reminder about the drop deadline for semester-long courses as well as a registration reminder. The next issue of the newsletter is scheduled for a release on Mon., March 10. The deadline to submit is Wed., March 5. Email us at undergradnews@business.uiuc.edu.

DROPPING A COURSE

THE DEADLINE TO DROP A 16 WEEK COURSE IS: Friday, March 7.

If possible, meet with your Undergraduate Affairs academic advisor to discuss whether dropping a course is the best option for you. You may schedule an appointment by calling 217.333.2740 or going online to www.business.uiuc.edu/undergrad. You may also email your academic advisor concerning your case.

REGISTRATION. COMING SOON.

FALL 2008 COURSE REGISTRATION BEGINS: Monday, March 31.

Now is the time to start planning and thinking about your next semester at Illinois. Make an appointment to see your academic advisor and to talk about your course selections and major decisions. Call the Office of Undergraduate Affairs [217.333.2740] to make an advising appointment.

New this semester — You can now make an appointment with your advisor via the Undergraduate Affairs website. Visit the appointment website: <https://www3.business.uiuc.edu/Appointment/>. Check your advisor's calendar and make an appointment. The system is easy to use and can be accessed with your Bluestem NetID and password.
