

This special FYI edition of the Undergraduate Business Newsletter serves as a reminder about the drop deadline for semester-long courses as well as a registration reminder. The next issue of the newsletter is scheduled for a release on Mon., October 29. The deadline to submit is Wed., October 24. Email us at undergradnews@business.uiuc.edu.

DROPPING A COURSE

THE DEADLINE TO DROP A 16 WEEK COURSE IS:
Friday, October 12.

If possible, meet with your Undergraduate Affairs academic advisor to discuss whether dropping a course is the best option for you. You may schedule an appointment by calling 217.333.2740. You may also email your academic advisor concerning your case. Visit the Undergraduate Affairs website to find your advisor's email address: www.business.uiuc.edu/

REGISTRATION. COMING SOON.

SPRING 2008 COURSE REGISTRATION BEGINS: Monday, October 29.

Now is the time to start planning and thinking about your next semester at Illinois. Make an appointment to see your academic advisor and to talk about your course selections and major decisions. Call the Office of Undergraduate Affairs [217.333.2740] to make an advising appointment.

Go to the Office of Admissions and Records or the UI Integrate system to find your registration time ticket (beginning 10/15). Speak with OAR if you have questions about your assigned time ticket. Call them at 217.333.0210.

Look for more Spring 2008 registration information in the October 22 FYI issue of the Undergraduate Business Newsletter.
